Affirmation Regarding Employment Practices

Bylaw 6-3(b) of the American Association of Law Schools requires member schools to pursue a policy of providing its students and graduates with equal opportunity to obtain employment, without discrimination or segregation on the ground of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, or sexual orientation. Employers working with the University of Illinois College of Law and the Office of Career Planning and Professional Development are expected to abide by this requirement. I agree, to the extent permitted by law, to abide by the principle of equal opportunity as set forth in Bylaw 6-3(b) of the American Association of Law Schools.
