

Kari L. Sanderson

2101 Burlison Drive · Urbana, Illinois 61801 · 312-292-7206

Education

The University of Chicago, The Law School, Chicago, Illinois J.D. 1998
The University of Chicago Roundtable
Senior Interdisciplinary Programs and Topic Access Editor
Student Government, Third Year Class Representative

University of Washington, Seattle, Washington B.A. 1994
Major: English Literature
Academic honors, three years

Legal and Teaching Experience

University of Illinois College of Law August 2017 – Present
Teaching Professor of Law August 2022 – Present
Director of Appellate Advocacy August 2020 – Present
Associate Teaching Professor of Law August 2020 – August 2022
Assistant Teaching Professor of Law August 2017 – August 2020

- Teach one section of the 1L legal writing series: Introduction to Legal Analysis and Writing; Introduction to Advocacy.
- Create problems, project series and additional materials used in individual section of Introduction to Legal Analysis and Writing and Introduction to Advocacy.
- Create fact patterns and materials for the Frederick Green Moot Court Honorary Round.
- Responsible for creating all curriculum, problems, project series, syllabi, and grading tools used in all four Advanced Legal Writing: Appellate Advocacy sections.
- Teach one section of Advanced Legal Writing: Appellate Advocacy and provide classroom materials and support for adjunct professors teaching the other three sections of Advanced Legal Writing: Appellate Advocacy.
- Teach Advanced Legal Writing: Transactional Writing; create problems, project series and additional materials used in course.

George Mason University School of Law August 2008 – June 2017
Director, Second Year LRWA Program December 2013 – June 2017
Associate Director, LRWA Program August 2012 – November 2013
Assistant Director, LRWA Program August 2008 – July 2012

- Responsible for required 2L writing program within the LRWA (Legal Research, Writing, and Analysis) Program.
- Created curriculum, problems, project series, syllabi, grading tools, and additional materials used in all appellate writing and legal drafting sections.
- Taught sections of appellate writing and legal drafting.
- Managed corps of 20-30 adjunct instructors.

- Restructured legal drafting course from a course surveying disparate drafting tasks to an integrated course providing an introduction to transactional work and drafting.
- Oversaw creation of pilot program for elective upper-level, practice-specific, drafting course.
- Taught 1L introduction to legal research, writing, and analysis course and managed team of 17 third- and fourth-year teaching assistants.

Jenner & Block LLP

August 2003 – August 2008

Paralegal: Family Law Practice Group.

- Drafted court pleadings, motions, orders, settlement agreements; frequent client contact.
- Performed financial analysis, due diligence, and legal research; drafted legal memoranda and CLE course materials.
- Managed, trained and instructed project assistants.

Sachnoff & Weaver, Ltd.

February 2000 – January 2002

Associate: Corporate, Securities, and Intellectual Property Law Group.

- Drafted documents for leveraged acquisitions, stock and securities offerings, and corporate governance.
- Negotiated service contracts and leasing arrangements.
- Coordinated closings for multiple mergers and acquisitions.

Wildman, Harrold, Allen & Dixon

June 1997 – January 2000

Summer Associate, Law Clerk and Associate: Practiced in the areas of insurance defense and product liability litigation, family law and general corporate and securities.

- Primary attorney on multiple divorce cases.
- Co-author, “Original Proceedings for Temporary and Permanent Custody” IICLE Practice Handbook: Child Custody Litigation, H. Joseph Gitlin, General Editor.

Presentations

Invited Presentation at Chapman and Cutler LLP

January 24, 2023

Co-Presenter: Should This Be an Email: Writing Professional Emails – A Refresher

Eighth Applied Legal Storytelling Conference

July 15, 2021

Virtual – Hosted by Mercer University School of Law

Presenter: Introducing Rule Synthesis Using the Trial of Harry Potter

Emory’s Seventh Biennial Conference on the Teaching of Transactional Law & Skills - Emerging from the Crisis: The Future of Transactional Law and Skills Education

June 4, 2021

Virtual – Hosted by Emory Law Center for Transactional Law and Practice

Presenter: Try This Session: Introducing the Letter of Intent Using Craigslist

LWI One-Day Workshop December 1, 2018
University of Illinois College of Law
Panel Discussion Participant: Upper Level Writing Classes – Writing After the First Year
Presenter: Teaching Transactional Legal Writing

Legal Writing Institute One-Day Conference December 4, 2015
Widener Law Commonwealth
Presenter: Paths in the Forest: A Proposed Argument Decision Tree

Capital Area Legal Writing Conference March 9, 2012
Georgetown University Law Center
Presenter: Legal Drafting: A Proposed Problem Series with a Corporate Focus

College and University Service since Joining the College of Law

University of Illinois Committee on Admissions July 2020 – July 2022
Member

University of Illinois Committee on Learning Outcomes Assessment July 2018 – Present
Member

College of Law Assessments Committee August 2018 – Present
Co-Chair July 2021 – Present
Member August 2018 – July 2021

University Senate July 2018 – May 2019
Senator

College of Law Diversity Committee September 2017 – July 2018
Member